

Obituary

Mrs. Wilhelmina D. Mousley Cannon, wife of David H. Cannon, president of the St. George temple, died at her home in this city a few minutes before midnight on Wednesday, January 16th, 1918. Mrs. Cannon had been ailing since the day before Christmas, but had been able to be up every day—even sitting up on the last day until 1 p. m.

Mrs Cannon was the youngest and last survivor of the children of the late Titus and Ann Mousley, who with their family came to Utah in 1857. Her marriage took place on January 15th, 1859, and in the fall of 1861 she came with her husband and baby and helped to locate the town of St. George. She was one of the last eight survivors of the heads of families in that first company

Mrs Cannon was born October 11, 1840, in Centerville, Newcastle Co Delaware. She is survived by the following children, who, except as otherwise noted reside in St. George: David H. jr., Angus, Mrs. Wilhelmina C. Sullivan, Lewis N. of Stone, Idaho, Mrs Josephine C Jones of Provo and Frank of Stone, Idaho; also by 34 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Four children preceded her to the Great Beyond

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 30 p. m in the tabernacle, the building being beautifully decorated with ivy and potted plants. Bishop Isaac C Macfarlane conducted. The speakers were Joseph T. Atkin, Pres Thomas P Cottam and Pres Edward H Snow. Some of her favorite hymns—"How firm a Foundation," "Oh My Father" and "I Need Thee Every Hour," were sung by the Tabernacle choir. Benediction was by Pres George F. Whitehead and the grave was dedicated by John T Woodbury. The floral offerings were beautiful and unusual for this time of the year.

Eighteen of the nineteen living children of Pres. Cannon were in attendance at the funeral.

"The Woman God Forgot" in which Geraldine Farrer stars will be shown at The Electric Theatre Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 25 and 29. This is a superb production dealing with the conquest of Montezuma and the Aztecs of Mexico by the Spaniards hundreds of years ago. Fortunes have been spent in bringing it true to life, making it romantic, thrilling and wonderful. Don't fail to take it in.
